DKYLE JAMAL BRIDGES,	:
KRISTIAN JONES, et al.	:

ORDER

AND NOW, this 6th day of November 2018, upon consideration of the motion to continue trial filed by Defendant Dkyle Jamal Bridges, (Doc. 77), Defendant Kristian Jones' response in opposition to co-Defendant's request for a continuance, (Doc. 82), this Court finds that the reasons articulated in the motion cause the ends of justice to best be served by granting the requested continuance of the trial scheduled in this matter, and that said reasons expressed outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial. Further, Defendants' motions to sever were denied by Order dated November 6, 2018. Therefore, since the requested continuance constitutes a justifiable period of delay within the meaning of 18 United States Code Section 3161(h)(7)(A) and (B), it is hereby ORDERED that the motion for continuance is GRANTED.¹ The trial and jury selection date will be rescheduled for a time consistent with the Court's calendar and after the Defendants have been arraigned on the Superseding Indictment. Defendant's counsel's request for a conference with the parties is denied.
